Although CHANGE greatly appreciates all volunteers who wish to work with horses, we also require help in other areas. Please check areas in which you may be able to lend service.

- Fundraising: Procure donations for auctions / raffles / tack swaps, sell tickets to events, attend events and help with set-up, clean-up and help during the events.
- Adoptions: Photograph horses, meet with prospective adoptors to show a horse, conduct site checks at prospective adoptive homes, answer information calls, check references, process adoption questionnaires, transport horses to adoptive homes, and conduct follow-up assessments of horses placed in adoptive homes.
- Tack: Deliver collection boxes to barns, collect tack and horse supply donations, bring donations to tack warehouse, issue tax deduction forms and thank you cards for donations, inventory tack room, clean, repair or discard tack / supplies, advertise / man sales, launder blankets in CHANGE industrial washing machines.
- Courtroom: Disseminate via phone or email: court dates / times and changes to scheduled court cases. Manage volunteers who attend court proceedings; attend court proceedings. Coordinate writing letters to the probation department and reporting on court cases to CHANGE board members.

Please provide any references from people who may be able to attest to your abilities in each of the above categories for which you wish to volunteer.
