WHEN: Sunday, June 24, 2018 - 5 pm-to 7pm
Beer, wine and canapes for auction attendees

WHERE: Circle Oak Ranch
909 Mustang Court, Petaluma 94954

Ron Malone, 2014 NCHA Super Stakes Amateur Champion, is donating all proceeds from the auction sale of his extensive collection of cutting horse tack, including:

- Six cutting saddles -16.5" seats
 - 3 Roo Hide
 - 2 Leddy
 - One original Bob Marshall
- 50+ bridles
- Breast collars, stirrups, spurs, chaps and more!
- Show and working pads
- Miscellaneous leg wraps, boots, emergency med kits, etc.
- GameReady leg-icing system (Professional kit--$4,000 new)

Ron may even let go, only to the right person, one of his all-time favorites: "This Isa Stray Cat" (12-year-old gelding by WR This Cats Smart). "Scamper" has NCHA earnings of more than $120,000, is a 2012 Fort Worth finalist (winner of the Go Around (221), and winner of his fair share on the Pacific Coast, including back-to-back 225s at the 2013 PCCHA AM7-UP. Email Ron@CircleOakEquine.com for more info.

All proceeds benefit the Sonoma County CHANGE Program- a local 501(c)3 horse rescue organization that assists law enforcement with equine humane cases.

~All auction proceeds will be matched dollar for dollar from a private charitable foundation~
